

THE LAST DAY OF OUR PRE-INVENTORY SALE

And your last chance to buy good Groceries at wholesale price. Every price quoted all this week is good today, and some things have even declined. For instance, absolutely fresh ranch eggs are now only 60c a dozen, every egg guaranteed fresh. Cooking eggs, dozen, 40c; New Potatoes, just a few, while they last, pound, 8c. Even Apples are now sold for less.

For the New Year's dinner the Olives and Pickles, condiments, etc., should come from us. Any old time you can find our prices and quality right, but today buy the best for less. Butter took a slump. Today that good Climax at only 50c a pound.

LOCAL ITEMS

Mrs. Arch Carroll, formerly Miss Gladys Stupp, who was operated on for appendicitis at a local hospital Wednesday evening, is reported to be getting along nicely.

C. O. Cushman, principal member of the clothing firm of E. L. Washburn company, whose residence now is at San Francisco, a suburb of Oakland, Calif., is here to help the other members of the firm out in their inventory and to see old friends. Mr. Cushman will remain about a month. He is compelled to remain in California for health reasons.

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Millinger of San Antonio, Tex., are spending the holidays with Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Coons, 215 North Twelfth street. Mrs. Millinger is an aunt of Mrs. Coons. The visitors will remain until after the first of the New Year.

J. C. Nave, deputy forest supervisor of the Mammoth national forest, will leave Monday for the Mountain section of the Mammoth forest, to take charge of timber scaling for Kuyper Brothers, whose firm is cutting government timber purchased by E. B. Lovelace.

Paul R. McBride is to take up the studies of forest ranger work under the vocational training branch of the United States Veterans' bureau. He will start his studies, which will include actual work in the Mammoth forest, January 2.

Deputy Supervisor Stanley Wilson of the land of national forest with headquarters at Magdalena, is in the city today to visit the district forester's office.

D. Candelaria was cited by the police yesterday for speeding on West Central avenue. He is charged with speeding at 25 miles an hour on Central avenue from Fourth to Twelfth street.

MAN WHO ASSAULTED
GERMAN GIRL MAKES A SECOND GET-AWAY

Douglas, Ariz., Dec. 25—Albert E. Caldwell, escaped convict from Leavenworth, re-captured by the local police Thursday, saved his way out of the city jail tonight and is once more a free man. It is believed that he headed straight for the line and is now in Agua Prieta, Sonora, where his recapture and return will be an easy matter for county authorities tomorrow, police say.

Caldwell was sentenced to serve eight years in Leavenworth for an assault on a German girl while the American troops were on the Rhine in 1918. He had served four years of his time when he made his escape November 22, according to the story he told the police.

Only one other prisoner, a man held for ransom, made his escape from the jail through bars sawed by Caldwell.
